Environmental Information Regulations 2004, regulation 8(1) permits a public authority to charge for supplying environmental information. However, regulation 8(3) states any charge cannot “exceed any amount which the public authority is satisfied is a reasonable amount”. In general terms, a reasonable amount will not exceed the cost of making the information available. However, there are certain exceptions to this, one of which is where information is available on a commercial basis and the charge is necessary to ensure such information continues to be collected and published. A market-based charge is considered to be reasonable where the information is property search information requested as part of a commercial transaction.

Additional Fees for Premises Licences (large scale venues)

These additional fees apply when an application is made for a Premises Licence for large scale venues. ‘Premises’ includes land and it is expected that these additional fees will only apply in respect of large scale outdoor events. Additional renewal fees are payable when a ‘premises’ (area of land) continues to be licensed.

Late payment surcharge when summons or written charge posted

Once a summons or single justice procedure notice (charge) has been posted, a surcharge will be applied to late payments. This surcharge will be:

- Summary-only offence, default £50
- Either-way offence a default £80, or
- Other amount reflecting the actual costs of the case

After the first hearing at court, the surcharge will be:

- Summary-only offence, not less than £50
- Either-way offence, not less than £80, or
- The actual costs or an amount agreed at court with prosecutor when the case is adjourned and/or the accused is bailed to attend a subsequent hearing.

Lesser penalty amount for early payment

For the offences to which The Environmental Offences (Fixed Penalties) (England) Regulations 2017, as amended, sets the fixed penalty amounts and ranges, no discount amount is set under regulation 8, 9 or 11. Accordingly, for consistency and equitability, no discount amount is set for the purposes of regulations 6(6) – (8) of the Littering From Vehicles Outside London (Keepers: Civil Penalties) Regulations 2018.

No discounts have been set for the purposes of section 68 of the Anti-social Behaviour, Crime and Policing Act 2014 or sections 33ZA or 34ZA of the Environmental Protection Act 1990.
